Greetings. May the Love of our Lord Jesus and Mercy of our God be with you brethren.

Please, Advise accordingly;

1.

In respect to increased knowledge in God's Word- the Light of TRUTH i have achieved, I find it hard to serve in Aglican church as an elected minister in a local church; not the less to be corfantible with nemerious errors/doctrines of man (Not that: I do not believe in these errors nor be longer part of them).

NOTE: that I now preffer to go to this congregation as my Lord used to go to these Tamples/ Congregation for mainly, Preaching the Gospel and for the sake of TRUTH.

Therefore, am planning to make a smooth resgnination of these aglican responsibilities as at the same time pioneer the LIGHT OF TRUTH.

I also find it hard in my geographical area, for an association which is free of the above errors(Man and satanic doctrines) NOT even the modern Pastors/ Miracle Centres, NOR any Christian denomination of the present; ADVISE!

I AM DRAWING A PLAN TO FURTHER THE WORK OF THE TRUE CHURCH based on GOD's Purposes of SALVATION and His LOVE (It will come to your attention- for imput or advise),and I am also aware of challanges of preaching the THRUTH in this Turbulent World.

GOD blesses you.

ELIEZER M. JJUUKO.

Dear Br. ELIEZER M. JUUUKO,

Grace and peace be unto you in our heavenly Father and our Lord, Jesus Christ!

Thank-you for your wonderfull email, really you are taking a very good stand for the Truth and you are right in leaving the Anglican denomination and to stand free in Christ Jesus.

We are in the Harvest time of Matthew 13, and we expect the separation process to continue until all of the Lord's true "wheat" are gathered unto him.

Your stated method of trying to leave the Anglican denomination smoothly, for the Truth's sake is the best course. It is not the message of truth alone, but also the spirit that we manifest that makes the difference.

Please remind me of where you are living or residing now? Maybe we can put you in touch with other truth seekers.

Lord bless,

Ric
